

Stationary micromagnetism in a thin multidomain

In this talk, starting from the classical $3D$ micromagnetic energy, the free energy of two joined ferromagnetic thin films is determined, via an asymptotic analysis. Different regimes depending on the limit of the ratio between the small thicknesses of the two films are considered.

This is joint work with Antonio Gaudiello.